OUR SATISFIED CLIENTS

"We selected PLG Consulting because of the breadth of their knowledge and understanding of the U.S. transportation industry. In addition to developing detailed operations and cost models for our project, they were able to highlight trends in the industry, permitting and regulatory issues, and prepared customized options to fit our situation both now and in the future. Their industry experts delivered exactly what we were looking for in an efficient and professional manner and we look forward to working with PLG again in the future."
